Be Courageous. Be Strong. Do Everything with Love. (1 Corinthians 16:13-14)

Dear Parents,

We are so excited to be having our first church service on Monday led by Rev. Joanne. All classes Willow- Oak will be attending and so please ensure that you have completed the permission form. There is still time to make a donation to our harvest collection- boxes will be left outside classes for last minute items on Monday morning.

We are also excited to have shared with our year 6 community news about this year's camp! It will be the first camp in two years due to Covid and we are delighted to have booked Laches Wood with Newton Regis and Austrey Schools. Year 6 parents should have received an email about this trip- please contact the office if you need more information.

Please keep reading to find out more about parents evenings, pizza day and an extra days holiday...

Living the Values

In collective worship this week we thought about our vision. We share our vision at the start of each worship but felt it was a good time to remind ourselves about what it means. When we share our vision (led by worship leaders- we also join in with actions and these link to the emoji's below- ask your child to show you at home!

In collective worship we also learnt about Harvest and why we celebrate Harvest. We shared a passage from Psalms:

Be Courageous

Ask Questions
Take Risks
Challenge yourself

Be Strong

Be independent
Be ambitious
Reach your potential

Do everything with love

Model our values
Go out to help others

"You send abundant rain on the ploughed fields and soak them with water; You soften the soil with showers and cause the young plants to grow. What a rich harvest Your goodness provides! Wherever You go there is plenty."

Head Teacher Gold Award

This week's Gold Award goes to Elliott from Sycamore Class. Elliott has been chosen for Gold award because he is such a wonderful role model to his classmates and he is always trying his best in every subject. Well done Elliott!

Thankfulness in EYFS!

Willow and Acorns started their year with our core value of Love and this week began to learn about thankfulness- the value for the rest of the school. They have some wonderful ideas about things they are thankful for! These include:

- lunch (meatballs!)
- polar bears
- cuddles
- kindness

Arbor!

Thank you to all of those parents who have already downloaded the Arbor app. If you haven't yet, then please check your emails for more information on how to download the Arbor app, log in and set up your account. We will be using Arbor for trips, payments, bookings and messages and so it is really important that all of our families are able to access it. Thank you for your cooperation.

IEP Meetings

Each term we hold meetings with parents and carers of children who are on the SEND register. These meetings will take place with Mrs Dormand, Mrs Sage and your child's class teacher on Wednesday 13th October. Time slots should have been sent home via email- please contact the school office if you haven't received yours and believe you should have.

Mrs Shigdar's Tips for Wellbeing!

Mrs. Shigdar, our family support worker, has been thinking of ways to support our children and our families at home. Each week she shares a tip with you all to try and think about.

After school meltdowns.....

As parents and carers, we send our children off to school and wait anxiously, filling the day with going to work, have other children or family members to care for, distracting yourself until the time arrives when you can go and collect your child/children, eager to hug them, to hear all about their day at school.... But what occasionally may greet you is an unhappy, unsmiling face, followed by crying, screaming, rudeness or anger. I'm sure most parents will recognise this as the 'After School Meltdown'. This is a common pattern of behaviour for children of all ages, so don't think it's just your child who does it.

If you think of a child's perspective of their school day, they have spent a day following the school's rules and expectations, have been disappointed they didn't get their own way, felt lonely at times, have struggled to understand or complete the work set for them, felt things were unfair, but most of all THEY HAVE MISSED YOU! It may not feel that way, but they have. Seeing you at the classroom doors gives them a huge sense of relief. They have worked hard all day to be good and stay calm, but once they get home with you, to their safe place, that's when they can breathe, let it all out and erupt into MELTDOWN behaviour mode.

The most important thing is to stay calm and not to take this personally, which we all know is hard. Try these tips to give your child/children reassurance that you are thinking of them and are there for them:

Put a little note or happy picture in their lunch box

Be cheerful when you drop them off at school, so they leave with a positive feeling

Give them a special memento that they can keep reminding them of you, this can be a special stone, a beaded bracelet, a picture

Don't bombard them with questions to soon after they leave school, greet them smiling

Give them an after-school snack and drink

Keep in mind these meltdowns are not forever, they are a natural part of your child/children brain and emotional growth and once they learn how to regulate their emotions they learn how to express themselves in a better way.

Inhalers and Medication

Mrs Parker and Mrs Sutton have been working really hard to ensure that we have all of the correct medication in school for our children. Please only give medication into the office with a completed care plan and not to class teachers so that we know we have all of the correct information. All medication must be provided in the original packaging and with the original prescription label attached. Any medication being administered in school will require a new care plan to be completed.
