

Key Vocabulary
1	activist	someone who fights for change
2	Apartheid	separation of black people and white people in South Africa
3	boycott	a peaceful way to protest
4	civil rights	the rights to freedom and equality
5	equality	everyone treated the same
6	human rights	rights which belong to every person
7	inequality	when people are not treated the same
8	justice	when people get what they deserve
9	protest	show that you do not agree
10	racism	when someone thinks you're not as good as them because the colour of your skin is different to theirs
11	segregation	separating people because of the colour of their skin
12	significant	important

Significant People

These people are activists who fought against inequality.

	Eleanor Roosevelt Fought for the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.		Nelson Mandela fought to end Apartheid in South Africa.
	Rosa Parks Fought against segregation in America.		Malala Yousafzai fought for equal rights for girls.
	Martin Luther King Fought to end racism and led the Civil Rights Movement.		Marcus Rashford fought to end child poverty in the UK.

Timeline

